

Put Your Personal Stamp
On Retirement Living

Florida
Presbyterian Homes
is a Continuing Care Retirement Community
providing lifetime
housing, social activities and increased levels of care as needed

Explore our website at fphi.org to see how we can personalize retirement to you.

For more information, call (863) 577-6001.
16 Lake Hunter Drive, Lakeland, FL 33803
Like us on

Addressing all your retirement living needs is not only our promise. It's our pleasure.

We take great pride in providing the highest quality housing, health care and support services in a loving Christian environment. Retirement living really comes down to peace of mind, and Florida Presbyterian Homes can help you make the right move.

Residential Living

Independent living in charming houses, duplexes, triplexes and apartments with maintenance, lawn care, property tax, insurance, 24-hour security and a weekly meal in the lakeside dining room. Additional meals and housekeeping available.

Apartment Living

Independent living with an extra level of services. Studio, one and two bedroom apartments with maintenance, housekeeping, emergency call system, and one meal per day in the lakeside dining room.

Assisted Living with Memory Care and Porter McGrath Health Center

Award-winning care available when you need it.

Affiliation and Accreditation

- Non-profit community sponsored by the Presbyterian Church (USA) www.pcusa.org
- Accredited by the Continuing Care Accreditation Commission www.carf.org/aging
- Quality First Participant www.LeadingAge.org
- Multiple recipient of the Florida Gold Seal Award for excellence in long term care www.FloridaHealthFinder.org

